APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO PROGRAM

This program is for adult men and women who are employed and who feel they could benefit from a residential living program that provides support, partnership, and accountability. Applicants in active addiction should seek treatment and gain some clean time before applying. Past addiction, past criminal convictions, credit problems, etc. will not prevent a person from being accepted into this program. We will ask about these things at the interview only so we can be more informed for partnership to help you succeed now and in the future.

Please answer all questions completely and accurately. Please print.
